

The fact that 2/3 of all phone owners in NJ have elected to be put on our states's 'DoNot Call' list speaks volumes about how we feel about intrusive, annoying telemarketing phone calls. Telemarketing is not 'free speech'! It's hucksterism and privacy invasion. The FCC should strengthen the 'Do Not Call' law and not bend over to the will of deep-pocketed telemarketing lobbyists.